

THE SPEECH

Thank you for coming to Churrascaria Saudades. My name is _____. Have you dined with us before? We are an authentic Southern Brazilian Steakhouse. The meal takes place in two parts. The first part is our salad bar. Help yourself whenever you're ready. Go as often as you like. When you are ready for the main course, however, take that little red disk to your right and flip it over to the green side. This lets the gauchos know you are ready for any one of 15 cuts of beef, chicken, lamb, or pork, which they will bring right to your table, one at a time, in no specific order. So they are going to walk up with large skewers of meat. They will tell you exactly what they have. You can say yes or no. All we ask is that you grab the tongs and help guide that meat right to your plate. On the table right now is pao de queijo (gluten free cheese bread). When the meat comes out we bring caramelized bananas, crispy polenta, garlic mashed potatoes, and we keep them coming. If you need to take a break, just flip that little disk back to the red side. We will stop offering you the meat, but you can go back and forth, red to green, all night long. Please pace yourselves. This is a marathon not a sprint. My name is _____, but we all work as a team here. If you need anything at all, grab the first person that you see.

Can I start anyone off with cocktails, wine, or beer? We have an award winning wine list and eight different beers on tap. We also have an array of Coke products. We also offer a Brazilian soda called Guarana. It tastes like a cherry ginger ale and comes with a slice of orange. We have Acqua Panna for still water or San Pellegrino for sparkling water.
